The Student Perspective:
A Conversation with DREAM
(Disability Rights, Education, Activism, and Mentoring)
Sponsored by: CT AHEAD—Connecticut Association on Higher Education and Disability

Amy Borggaard (Assistant Director of Disability Services and Chapter Advisor) and Elizabeth Keleher (student Co-Leader) from College of the Holy Cross will join us to discuss their process of starting a peer education group out of a Disability Services Office and the many things they learned along the way.

Date:
November 1st, 2019
12:30pm refreshments
1pm – 4pm discussion

Location:
Central Connecticut State University
Constitution Room, Memorial Hall 2nd Floor
1615 Stanley Street, New Britain, CT

CT AHEAD welcomes disability services professionals, students, and other stakeholders from any institution to join this discussion.

Thinking about attending? Let us know here: bit.ly/DREAM-AHEAD

Additional Information:
- Visitors must park in a “RED” commuter parking area: https://www.ccsu.edu/parking/
- More information about DREAM: https://www.dreamcollegedisability.org/
- Please contact board@ctahead.org with any questions or accommodation requests

View and share this event, or add it to your calendar: https://ctahead.org/2019/07/ctahead_meeting_11-01-19/